

In addition, conversation 40 ends with Ms. Tripp saying she will speak to her attorney in the morning and then call Ms. Lewinsky. See T23 at 126. At the outset of conversation 41, Ms. Tripp says, "I cannot believe someone who I thought was already in bed is at the computer." This statement is consistent with a later call on the same night.

Given these circumstances, the date for all three conversations comes from conversation 40. In conversation 40, Ms. Tripp describes how she watched a movie called "A Home of Our Own" on this evening. The Family Channel broadcast this movie on December 12, 1997 at 8:00 p.m. During her debriefings, Ms. Tripp confirmed she watched the movie on the night it was broadcast on the Family channel.

These factors are consistent with a conversation on Monday, December 12, 1997.

Ms. Lewinsky received her subpoena on December 19, 1997. See 902-DC-00000135-138. In this conversation, Ms. Tripp refers to the subpoena and the fact that it calls for a hat pin. See T6 at 3. For this reason, the conversation has to be after the 19th. Ms. Lewinsky also says she had a short meeting with Mr. Jordan on this day. Mr. Jordan's calendar reveals he met with
